

CLUB WOMEN VISIT POINTS OF INTEREST

Members of General Federation
To Be Honored By Ladies of Congressional Club.

Members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who have been attending the mid-biennial council since Monday, are today visiting points of interest under the direction of members of the District of Columbia federation. Previous days have been filled with business sessions and committee conferences. The council has been one of the most successful in the history of the organization, it is declared. Nearly two thousand delegates have been present from other cities. It is practically assured that the fund of $100,000 as an endowment for expenses of conventions, salaries of officers, and the like, will be procured. Large sums have been pledged, and campaigns have been outlined for raising proportional amounts in different States.

Whether the federation will become a great national body, with representation in the International Council of Women, is now the important topic, and this will be discussed at conferences during the next few days.

Reception to Visitors.
The ladies of the Congressional Club will give a reception to all visiting members of the federation this afternoon from 4 to 6, complimentary to the president of the federated clubs.
Adjournment was taken last night at a final meeting in the Raleigh Hotel. Following a report of trustees of the endowment fund, a soprano solo by Mrs. Warner Gibbs and a short address by Mrs. Ellen M. Herrold, a "memorial hour" was held in memory of club members who have died since the last council. The lives of Mrs. H. C. White, of Georgia; Mrs. Edward Buchwalter, of Ohio; and Mrs. Sarah S. Platt Decker, at the time of her death president of the General Federation, were reviewed by the president of the federation; Mrs. Howard Huckins, successor of Mrs. Buchwalter as president of the federation in Ohio; Mrs. Mary E. Wood, of New Hampshire; Mrs. Philip N. Moore, of Missouri; and Mrs. Henry L. Keefe, of Nebraska.

Discuss Ideal Club Woman.
Discussion of the characteristics of the ideal club woman was then said by fifteen selected members of the federation. The council closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

About 200 delegates went to Baltimore in the morning to attend the council of the Maryland State Federation. On account of the illness of Mrs. Mary L. Ellicott, president of the Maryland State Federation, visitors were welcomed to the city by Mrs. Edward C. Wilson, first vice president.

Miss Margaret Wilson was one of the principal speakers. She urged the use of the public schools as social centers. Boyd Fisher, in charge of social center work in Greenwich, L. I., spoke at the luncheon at the Country Club. Miss Zona Gale told of "Civic Work Being Carried On in Little Towns." Mrs. Edmons Crocker, of "What Women Could Do in Conserving the Birds." Mrs. Imogene B. Oakley spoke of the "Domestic Side of Civil Service Reform." Mrs. E. A. Chantley discussed the "Minimum Wage and the Future of Immigrant Women," and Mrs. Horace Mann Turner discussed "Conservation of Effort."

Rev. Charles Currier Is Made Matanzas Bishop

The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Currier, who has been attached to the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions in Washington since 1906, has been appointed bishop of Matanzas, Cuba. A cablegram to that effect reached Washington last night. Father Currier is now ill in George Washington University Hospital with an attack of grip.

For five years prior to his appointment to the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions, Father Currier was pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Washington. He has been continuously in Washington since 1906.

Father Currier was born in the West Indies and got his early education in the schools of St. Thomas. He afterward went to Limburg, Holland, where he studied theology and philosophy. Later he became a missionary to Dutch Guiana. In 1882, he came to America and afterward went to Spain as a member of the National Congress of Americanists in 1892.

Devotional Work Needed, Is Pastor's Statement

The need of greater care lest too much stress be laid on service and too little on the devotional side of religious work was emphasized by the Rev. G. W. Van Fossen, at the seventeenth annual council of the Daughters of the King in the Diocese of Washington.

Sessions closed last night at the Church of the Ascension, Twelfth Street and Massachusetts Avenue. Evening prayer was held at 8 o'clock. Officers were elected as follows:

Mrs. S. S. Birney, president; Miss Victoria Koonce, first vice-president; Mrs. Helen Gilmore, second vice-president; Mrs. A. K. Anderson, recording secretary; Mrs. H. G. England, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charlotte Pine, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles Davies, president of the Junior Daughters.

Health Service Has Its Troubles With Savant

The Public Health Service is still having its troubles with Dr. Friedrich Friedmann, Berlin savant, who is in this country demonstrating a tuberculosis remedy.

Dr. Friedmann, it is said, has failed to answer official letters sent him by the Public Health Service, ignoring communications calling attention to his "halting progress" in the Government clinics in New York and asking for more of the turtle serum.

Dr. Friedmann has not yet given the necessary second treatment to the New York patients who are under observation by the Public Health Service.

Scouts to Hear Scout.

Col. Dick Plunkett, who was a real scout when the Indians and bad men of the West were in their glory, will address the Boy Scouts of Ingram Memorial Church tonight on the subject of scouting. Colonel Plunkett is famous as a marshal, a hunter, and an Indian fighter.
